Event Notes:

2. Final Estimate:

By signing this Agreement, Lessee agrees to pay Camelot Theatres a total of $ _____ for use of our facility, equipment and/or services as described in this agreement.

3. Payment Schedule:

A 50% Security Deposit is due upon signing contract. This deposit is non-refundable if the Lessee cancels the event within 15 days of the actual event date.

Required Deposit Amount is $ _____

The remaining balance of $ _____ is due on the day of the event.

- If the final payment has not been received in a timely manner, Camelot Theatres is free to rent the premises on the date(s) desired by Lessee without additional notice to Lessee.
- If it is necessary to cancel a rental date, lessee must give written notice to Camelot Theatres at least thirty (30) days prior to the earliest scheduled screening date so that the Camelot Theatres may rent the premises on the screening date to another lessee.
- It is the responsibility of lessee to establish a refund policy for their event. The theatre will follow the establish refund policy, but the theatre takes no financial responsibility unless theatre negligence is proven. It is the financial responsibility of the lessee to cover refunds. It is solely the responsibility of the lessee to cover services fees which are not refunding from the online ticket service.
- If the lessee has chosen the online ticketing system the following refund policy applies. Service fees for processing tickets are nonrefundable from the ticket provider. It is the responsibility of the lessee to cover service fee expenses back to the ticket purchaser. The theatre will bill the lessee for any expense incurred from issuing refunds. It is important that lessee notes a refund policy for the patron before they purchase tickets.
- Lessee must provide film or video format to theatre no later than two (2) days before scheduled event. This requirement ensures that the theatre has enough time to build the film print or the video format will play on the theatre's equipment.
- If lessee chooses to screen a PowerPoint presentation, the PowerPoint presentation must be submitted to Camelot Theatres two (2) days before the event. If editing is required, then Lessee must schedule a viewing with the Camelot Theatres prior to the above stated deadline.
- Video, film, and/or PowerPoint presentations will not be accepted or allowed to be edited the two (2) days before the event.

- It is the responsibility of the Lessee to ensure the film has been cleared for screening by the film makers when the film is not in distribution or by the distributors if the film has distribution. Fax letter from the appropriate party to the theatre allowing the screening is acceptable for film run.
- Camelot Theatres consists of three theaters, a Café and a Cinema Lounge/Bar. If Lessee has requested for food and beverages to be served for the Lessee's special event, the Lessee will be provided with a Catering Contract for the food and beverage services. The food and beverage contract will detail cost for the added request.
- When the Lessee hires or is required to hire or additional employees or volunteers to run Lessee's event. The following conditions must be met.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) will procure and maintain liability and/or worker's compensation insurance with a company authorized by the Insurance Commissioner to do business in the State of California and will provide limits of no less than $1,000,000.00 combined for injuries to, or death of, one or more persons and for property damage, combined single limit.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) agrees that the Camelot Theatres shall be named as an additional insured on the aforementioned policy of insurance.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) shall furnish to Camelot Theatres a certificate of insurance indicating the aforementioned coverage's, which must be received by Camelot Theatres at least thirty (30) days prior to the Lessee's earliest scheduled rental date.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) agrees to hold Camelot Theatres harmless from any and all damage or liability arising from any injury or claim of injury of any nature whatsoever to either person or property occurring upon said Premises during the term hereof, or arising from any accident or other occurrence causing or claimed to cause injury to any person or property whomever or whatever.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) agrees to hold Camelot Theatres harmless from any alleged economic or other consequences of any kind or nature whatsoever due to technical difficulties, projection equipment failure or malfunction or the like that may occur in connection with the Screening(s) on the Premises, and Lessee expressly waives any and all claims, whether known or unknown, against Camelot Theatres and its employees, agents or other representatives in this regard.
 - Lessee (or its vendors) agrees that Camelot Theatres is not responsible or liable in any manner or fashion from Lessee's personal property and the personal property of Lessee's guests, clients and/or patrons, or rental equipment, furniture or the like brought on the Premises directly or indirectly by Lessee for use in connection with the Screening(s) or attendant activities covered by this Agreement.

- Camelot Theatres audio equipment is limited to small seminars and film introductions/questions and answers. Running music into audio system will reduce the audio performance for seminars and introductions. Camelot Theatres audio system is not conducive for Theatrical Plays or Live Musical events. If Lessee audio needs go beyond Camelot Theatres' audio capability, the responsibility resides with the Lessee to procure their own audio system for their required needs.
- No additional lights or cables may be hung or attached from or to theaters' ceilings. All additional lighting must be reviewed by Camelot Theatres' chief technician before setup is to occur.
- The Lessee is responsible and liable for all outside equipment that is brought in for their own production.
- It is the responsibility of the Lessee to understand limits of the Camelot Theatres capabilities before signing this contract.
- Lessee shall not conduct ticket sales to the general public on Camelot Theatres premises unless written consent has been provided by Camelot Theatres.
- Camelot Theatres will employ a Theater Manager and Projectionist who will supervise the theater operation and projection facilities.
- Lessee accepts any and all risk of damage to the motion picture(s) and/or tape(s) occasioned by their exhibition on the Premises, and Lessee waives any claims or potential claims against Camelot Theatres and its employees, agents or other representatives for any such damage.
- Lessee will not permanently affix to the Premises anything whatsoever, and will be responsible for all expenses incurred by Camelot Theatres in removing any unauthorized fixtures and in returning the Premises to their original condition.
- Camelot Theatres reserves the right to refuse theater admittance to any person.
- Lessee will remove all furniture, equipment and the like not supplied by Camelot Theatres immediately following each screening and/or reception. Lessee will be responsible for reimbursing Camelot Theatres in full for any unreasonable expenses incurred in cleaning or repairing the Premises to restore them to their condition prior to Lessee's rental, including wages of Camelot Theatres employees for the time spent in such cleaning or repair. Lessee shall make such reimbursement to Camelot Theatres within ten (10) days of Camelot Theatres presentation of an itemized invoice for these expenses.

- This Agreement does not imply an endorsement by Camelot Theatres of any motion picture, other product or service of Lessee or grant the use of the Camelot Theatres name or logo in any advertisement, publicity or promotion of any nature whatsoever, and Lessee is expressly prohibited from engaging in any use or conduct inconsistent with this provision.
- Lessee is expressly prohibited from assigning or otherwise transferring any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any other entity or person without Camelot Theatres prior written consent.
- Camelot Theatres and Lessee agree they will participate in final and binding arbitration of any dispute arising under is Agreement, including an alleged breach by either party or a dispute over the interpretation or application of this Agreement, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1280 et seq. The party initiating arbitration shall provide the other party with written notice of the particulars of the claim within ninety (90) days of knowledge of the facts giving rise to the dispute or when the party reasonably should have known of such facts, whichever is later. A party's failure to give timely notice of an arbitration claim under this Agreement shall result in a waiver of such claim.
- Arbitrations are to be conducted before a sole, neutral arbitrator selected by mutual agreement of the Camelot Theatres and Lessee. In the absence of an agreement within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the arbitration notice, the parties agree to use the procedures of the American Arbitration Association for selection of a sole, neutral arbitrator. Either party's failure or refusal to participate in procedures for selection of an arbitrator, or to do so on a timely basis, shall result in the other party's right to unilaterally selection the neutral arbitrator.
- All arbitrations under this Agreement shall be held at the principal offices of the Camelot Theatres in Riverside County. The parties shall share equally in the arbitrator's fee and expenses and the costs of a court reporter; if the arbitrator requests a transcript, the parties shall share equally in these expenses. All other costs and expenses of arbitration shall be borne by the party incurring them. Each party shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence and argument before the arbitrator.
- The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to determine only such disputes as are submitted for arbitration under this Agreement. The arbitrator shall not have the authority or jurisdiction to reform, amend or extend the express terms and provisions of this Agreement. A party's failure or refusal to participate in arbitration proceedings shall not limit, impair or divest the arbitrator or jurisdiction to hear the dispute or render an award, provided notice of arbitration was served as required under this Agreement.
- The Arbitrator shall render a written decision and award setting forth with reasonable specificity the reason(s) therefore within sixty (60) days following the close of the hearing, receipt of the transcript of the hearing or receipt of written briefs, whichever is later. The arbitrator's decision and award shall be final and binding on the parties to the proceeding, whether participating in the proceeding or not.

- Lessee's failure to fully and completely adhere to any of the requirements and prohibitions of this Agreement may result in the Camelot Theatres cancellation of this entire Agreement or of one or more screening dates covered by this Agreement.
- This entire Agreement is subject to cancellation by Camelot Theatres in the event Camelot Theatres is prohibited from occupying the Camelot Theatres by the City of Palm Springs or any other governmental agency or the building owner. If subject of cancellation is un-enforceable, remainders are valid.
- This Agreement expresses the full and complete understanding of the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, and it shall not be amended or modified in any manner without the express written consent of both parties.
